Competition Eligibility and Registration

The Scholarship Competition is open to any WYO member in good standing. When applying to enter the competition, students must indicate the Scholarship Division that they have chosen to compete in.

Scholarship Division	Open to WYO members who play in:	RCM Grade Level of Selected Piece(s)
Junior division	Youth Strings	Up to and including Grade 5
Intermediate division	Youth Strings Youth Concert Orchestra	Grade 6 to Grade 8 inclusive
Senior division	Youth Strings Youth Concert Orchestra Youth Symphony Orchestra	Grade 9 to ARCT level

Students may compete on the instrument of their choice, whether or not it is their orchestral instrument, except keyboard/piano is not accepted in this competition.

- Maximum times for selections are:

Junior Division	6 minutes
Intermediate Division	10 minutes
Senior Division	12 minutes

NOTE: You may be asked to stop if you go over the allotted time

- First place Scholarship award for a division may be won only once
The first place scholarship award for a division may be won only once by any one individual. The Junior Division winner must proceed to the Intermediate Division and the Intermediate Division winner must proceed to the Senior Division in future competitions.
- Students must compete in a division appropriate to their orchestra level.
No student may compete in a Scholarship division lower than their orchestra level. Youth Concert Orchestra members cannot compete in the Junior Division and Youth Symphony Orchestra members cannot compete in Intermediate Division. Youth Strings members may choose to compete in the Intermediate Division and Youth Concert Orchestra members may enter the competition in the Senior Division. If a student plays in two orchestras, they must enter the higher level division competition.
- No student may perform a piece at a grade level that is higher than the grade level for the division that they have chosen to enter.
- Piece(s) must be selected and checked for grade level before the registration deadline.
The name and grade level (Provincial, Royal Conservatory or Conservatory Canada) of the selection(s) must be included in the competition registration. If grade level is not known or a piece is not listed in these syllabi, it must be reviewed and approved by the Scholarship Committee at least one week in advance of the registration deadline.

Do not wait until the last minute to do this! If a piece is deemed ineligible for the division that you have chosen to enter, you will need to choose something else to play before the registration deadline. IMPORTANT: After the deadline, neither the name(s) of the piece(s) nor the division entered can be changed.

Procedures

- Due to multiple factors to consider in the Covid19 context of this year's competition, all pieces will be performed without an accompanist.
- Competitors must bring a copy of their selection(s) for the Adjudicators. No photocopies will be allowed. If digital copies are used, the original CD or written proof of authenticity must be presented with the copies prior to the performance. Likewise, legal electronic downloads must be accompanied by a receipt.
- After the registration deadline, neither the name(s) of the piece(s) nor the division entered can be changed.
- The adjudication will be based on several criteria including accuracy, intonation, phrasing and dynamics, musicality, and overall presentation.
- Please ensure that bar numbers have been included at the beginning of each line of music. This will help the adjudicators with their evaluation.
- The winners will be encouraged to play in one of the Winnipeg Youth Orchestras for at least one more year.
- Winners will be notified by email on the Saturday of the competition.

IMPORTANT: If you find that after registering to enter the competition that you are unable to compete, please let the organizers know as soon as possible by contacting Margaret Fjeldsted by email at admin@winnipegyouthorchestras.ca. There can be no refunds given after sending in your registration form.
